

Rev. Thien-An (Dan) N. Dang
Vice President
REAP International

Thien-An (Dan) N. Dang was born in Vietnam and grew up in the city of Dalat. He was 15 years of age when South Vietnam fell in 1975. Dan's parents made the decision to leave their native country in March 1975. The family joined about 500 others on a boat and sailed on May 1, 1975. That was the beginning of a harrowing 27-day voyage. The boat stopped in Singapore and the Philippines before finally reaching U.S. soil in Guam.

Dan's family eventually settled in Omaha, Nebraska, where he lived 17 years. In 1984, he married a Vietnamese woman, Hanh Dang, who had immigrated in 1983. Dan and Hanh now have one son, Peter. Peter serves his country as a Captain in the U.S Air Force.

In 1982 Dan became Office and Customer Service Manager for Council Bluffs Water Works, Iowa. In 1985 he became a Senior Manager for the Radio Shack Corporation. Dan's retail career eventually brought him and his family to Texas in 1991.

In 1993, while with Tandy/Radio Shack in Ft. Worth, Texas, Dan ran across Dave Roever. Dave's office was just across the parking lot from Dan's business. Dan remembered meeting Roever in Vietnam in the church where his father pastored before his family left the country. It was a God-ordained meeting that day in Ft. Worth, as shortly thereafter, Dave Roever made a trip back to Vietnam for the first time since 1975, and on that very trip REAP International was born. Today REAP International, Inc. is a multi-pronged outreach of compassion to the children and adults of Vietnam and 30 other countries. Dan is a key part of this outreach. He is also working side by side with Global University. Dan serves Global University as Director of Outreach for Sensitive Countries. He is in charge of translating educational materials into Vietnamese. Rev. Dang is an international evangelist and preaches at open-air outreaches in Southeast Asia. He has a weekly live evangelistic internet/tele-conference that concentrates on leadership development and "underground" church planting. REAP also ministers to community needs through medical missions and outreach to orphans.

Dan is one of the associate speakers with Dave Roever & Associates and pastor of Vietnamese Christian Community Church at Haltom City, Texas.

After his love for God, Dan's love for America is surpassed only by his love for his people in Vietnam. He is working passionately with Dave Roever and REAP International. The various ministries Pastor Dan has created are a multi-faceted expression of his heart to bring the whole gospel to more than 30 countries.
