

Pastor Seff is a founding member of New Birth Christian Fellowship and currently serves as its senior pastor. As a former firefighter and healthcare provider his passion has always been driven to serve others. Since accepting Christ as his Lord and Savior at the age of eight, he has fulfilled many roles in the church. During his teen years he was an usher and sang in the young adult choir.

Pastor Seff would later go on to serve as deacon, sitting on church boards, and as advisor to various Pastors. He delivers the Word in a practical sense for all to grow during their walk and apply the Word to everyday life situations. He enjoys ministering to people, helping and encouraging them to grow into who God has called them to be. Pastor Seff earned Master of Arts in Theology and Doctorate of Ministry in Christian Counseling. He is also a Certified Chaplain with Vision International Leadership Network. He resides in Fort Worth, Texas with his wife, Catherine and daughter Tiana.
